Annex - Terms and Conditions

1 Glossary

1.1 The following words and expressions herein have the following meanings:

Accrediting Body - The accrediting body applying to the CPP for its endorsement of the Accreditation Scheme.

Accreditation Framework – The accreditation framework built on a set of key principles (progression pathways, competency-based assessment, inclusivity and Continuing Professional Development) for the endorsement of accreditation schemes, as set out by the CPP and as may be amended by the CPP from time to time;

Accreditation Standards – The accreditation criteria stipulated by the CPP and set out in Annex 1 (Accreditation Standards) of the Application Form, as may be amended by the CPP from time to time;

Accreditation Scheme – The proposed accreditation scheme submitted by the Accrediting Body in its Application Form for the CPP's endorsement;

Application – The application in respect of which the Application Form is submitted;

Application Form – The application form submitted by the Accrediting Body to the CPP for the CPP's endorsement of the Accreditation Scheme set out therein;

BCA – Building and Construction Authority;

CPP – The Central Procurer Panel that sets and coordinates accreditation standards across the different disciplines in and endorses accreditation schemes for the built environment industry;

Validity period – The validity period of the CPP's endorsement of the Accreditation Scheme.

2 General

2.1 The Accrediting Body acknowledges and agrees with the CPP that by submitting the Application Form to the CPP, it will be bound by the terms and conditions set out herein if the Accreditation Scheme is endorsed by the CPP.

2.2 The CPP may, at its absolute discretion, accept and endorse the Accreditation Scheme if the Accreditation Scheme has met the Accreditation Standards and the requirements under the Accreditation Framework. The Accrediting Body acknowledges and agrees that the CPP is not bound to accept the Application even if the Accreditation Scheme has met the Accreditation Standards and the requirements under the Accreditation Framework.

2.3 During the Validity Period, the Accrediting Body shall immediately notify the CPP in writing of any changes to the Accrediting Body or the Accreditation Scheme that may affect the Accrediting Body's ability to meet the Accreditation Standards or fulfil the requirements under the Accreditation Framework.

3 Accreditation Standards

3.1 CPP reserves the right to amend the Accreditation Standards at its sole discretion from time to time without prior notice to the Accrediting Body.

3.2 The Accrediting Body is required to maintain the Accreditation Standards and the CPP reserves the right to review from time to time, at its sole discretion, the endorsement status of the Accreditation Scheme.

3.3 The Accrediting Body shall ensure that the Accreditation Scheme continuously fulfils the Accreditation Standards during the entire Validity Period.

4 Annual Reports

4.1 The Accrediting Body shall submit to the CPP on an annual basis a report on the Accreditation Scheme, in such format as the CPP may specify, including but not limited to an assessment of the Accreditation Scheme's ongoing fulfilment of the Accreditation Standards and status report(s) on the accredited personnel, appeal and disciplinary cases under the Accreditation Scheme.

5 Limitation of Liability

5.1 So far as permitted by law, BCA, the CPP and/or any of its members shall not be liable to the Accrediting Body for any direct, indirect, incidental, special, punitive or consequential damages, however caused, including any loss of profits or business interruption costs, including but not limited to contract, strict liability and negligence, arising from the endorsement or cessation of endorsement by the CPP of the Accreditation Scheme, any amendments to the Accreditation Standards or the Accreditation Framework, or the exercise of any of the CPP's rights or powers (including those under clause 8) under these Terms and Conditions.

6 Indemnity

6.1 The Accrediting Body agrees and shall indemnify BCA, CPP and/or its members against all loss and expenses including but not limited to all claims against BCA, CPP and/or its members arising from the endorsement of the Accreditation Scheme by the CPP or the administration of the Accreditation Scheme by the Accrediting Body.

7 Endorsement of the Accreditation Scheme

7.1 If the CPP endorses the Accreditation Scheme, the CPP through its secretariat will send the Accrediting Body an email notifying the Accrediting Body that the Accreditation Scheme has been endorsed by the CPP ("Endorsement Notification Email"), and the Accreditation Scheme shall be considered to be endorsed by the CPP from the date of the email or the effective endorsement date stated in the Endorsement Notification Email, whichever is later.

7.2 The Accrediting Body shall be entitled to display or reproduce (only in full) the Endorsement Notification Email and/or make reference to the CPP's endorsement of the Accreditation Scheme in its marketing and promotion for the Accreditation Scheme during the entire Validity Period.

7.3 The Accrediting Body shall immediately discontinue the display or reproduction of the Endorsement Notification Email and any reference to the CPP's endorsement of the Accreditation Scheme in its marketing and promotion for the Accreditation Scheme upon the cessation of the CPP's endorsement of the Accreditation Scheme.

8 Request for reconstitution of the accreditation, appeal and/or disciplinary panel

8.1 If the CPP is of the reasonable opinion that the Accrediting Body has not administered the Accreditation Scheme in a timely, fair and equitable manner, with due regard to the aims of the Accreditation Framework, the CPP may:

a) request the reconstitution of the Accrediting Body's accreditation, appeal and/or disciplinary panels for the Accreditation Scheme; and/or

b) request the re-hearing of any accreditation, appeal or disciplinary hearing under the Accreditation Scheme by such reconstituted panel, and upon the receipt of the CPP's request(s), the Accrediting Body shall promptly fulfil the CPP's request(s).

9 Cessation of Endorsement

9.1 The CPP reserves the right to cease the endorsement of the Accreditation Scheme in the event of any of the following circumstances:-

a) The Accrediting Body has not submitted the annual report required in clause 4 within the timeframe required by the CPP.
b) The management personnel of the Accrediting Body has failed in any material respect to comply with the laws and by-laws of Singapore.
c) The Accrediting Body has materially failed to comply with any or all of the terms and conditions herein or the Accreditation Scheme fails to meet the Accreditation Standards or the requirements of the Accreditation Framework.
d) The Accrediting Body has not administered the Accreditation Scheme, including any appeal or disciplinary cases relating to the Accreditation Scheme, in a timely, fair and equitable manner, with due regard to the aims of the Accreditation Framework.

9.2 Whether the events as described under (a), (b), (c) and/or (d) have occurred, thereby allowing the CPP to exercise its rights under clause 9.1, shall be at the sole discretion and determination of the CPP.

9.3 The CPP has the absolute discretion to decide if a warning letter should be issued to the Accrediting Body before the CPP's cessation of endorsement of the Accreditation Scheme.

9.4 Where the endorsement of the Accreditation Scheme has been ceased by CPP (in its absolute discretion), the Accrediting Body may re-apply for the CPP's endorsement of the Accreditation Scheme. Any such application shall be treated as a new application and assessed accordingly.
